

KENTUCKY AGGREGATE TECHNICIAN PROGRAM

A word of explanation ...

This is an announcement for the Kentucky Aggregate Technician Program. There are three options available

- First, the two and one-half day Qualified Aggregate Technician Course is for persons who need to be qualified to perform sampling and testing of aggregates.
- Second, the one-half day Aggregate Sampling Technician course is for persons who need to be qualified to perform sampling only (they do not test) and for those currently qualified whose certification has expired or will expire in 2007 or early 2008.
- Third is the one-half day Aggregate Technician Requalification Examination. This exam is for technicians who currently hold an Aggregate Technician or Aggregate Technician, Level I or Aggregate Technician, Level II qualification which will expire in 2007 or early 2008 and who desire to be requalified as an aggregate technician for an additional five years. These persons will only be required to take the laboratory and written exam.

KATP PROGRAM REGISTRATION GUIDELINES

The following registration guidelines must be maintained in order to properly administer the KATP program and allow for its continued operation.

1. Applications and money for program participants must be received before each applicant attends the program. The state will be billed for all state employees.
2. Late registrants will be placed in classes based on availability. All applications are time/date stamped and classes are filled as they are received. First choices of registrants may not be available for late registrations.
3. All class rosters are completed on their late registration deadline date. Applications received after the late registration date will not be accepted.
4. Class participants who show up at a class on the wrong date will not be admitted if the class is full. If the class is not full, a new completed registration form and proof of payment will be required.

If you have any questions concerning which course your personnel should register for, please do not hesitate to contact us.
